APRIL 2
TOP GUN

If you feel the need for speed, you can't miss this classic tale of Tom Cruise's struggle to be the best ace fighter pilot in his class. Throw on some Aviators, grab a wingman, and start your Spring Quarter on the highway to the Danger Zone.

APRIL 16
QUANTUM OF SOLACE

In this fast-paced and hard-hitting follow-up to Casino Royale, Daniel Craig stars as Agent 007, whose quest for vengeance pairs him with the beautiful Olga Kurylenko and pits him against a resource-monopolizing villain.

In this Best-Picture nominee, Ron Howard expertly combines history and drama to tell the behind-the-scenes story of the legendary interview between talk-show host David Frost and the infamous president Richard Nixon.

APRIL 23
FROST/NIXON

MAY 7
HAPPY-GO-LUCKY

Poppy, a hopelessly optimistic London schoolteacher, always sees the best in things. Naturally, this annoys her miserable friends and co-workers to no end, but if they're lucky they might learn something from her. As the tagline says, this is "The one movie this spring that will put a smile on your face."

MAY 21
WILL FERRELL: YOU'RE WELCOME, AMERICA

As the man whose SNL impression spawned the word "stratergy," there's no one better than Will Ferrell to give a final comedic sendoff to George W. Bush. Even better, he performs it live on stage!
